Proposed FY 2020 Budget Highlights

Key Issue: City has been able to “absorb” Hold Harmless increase of approximately $200,000 per year until it reaches 3.2 Million in year 15. This will make balancing the budget a greater challenge with each subsequent year. FY 2020 Hold Harmless amount approximately $1,000,000.

General Fund Expenditure Highlights

- ▶ Red Rock Park Utilities expenditure ($183,000) moved from Lodger’s Tax to General Fund
- ▶ Rex Museum position moved from Lodger’s Tax to General Fund
- ▶ No COLAs included in draft budget due to Hold Harmless revenue reduction.
- ▶ Health Insurance cost increase budgeted in draft FY 2020 Budget at 12% and Dental insurance at 5%.
- ▶ Council Special Project Funds: $150,000 ($30,000 for each elected official)
- ▶ Fire operation expenditures decrease of $75,000 from general fund. These operation expenditures are funded by the Fire Protection Fund (209).
- ▶ Police operation expenditures decrease of $586,976 from general fund, then allocated to a police special fund, funding from Infrastructure Tax GRT.

Highlights cont'd

7. Requested Positions/Reclassifications

A. General Fund:

Library – Museum Clerk position

B. Enterprise Funds:

Solid Waste – Customer Service Representative position

Highlights cont'd

- ▶ 9. Reductions/Revenue Generation Opportunities:
 - A. Billing for Fire Medical Transport is still a work in progress but Fire Department continues to undertake licensing, etc. to put this revenue generation in place.
 - B. Continue to expand the quality and quantity of tourism promotion/events and marketing of City to increase both Lodger's Tax and GRT revenues.
 - C. Build on strategic partnerships with BID, MainStreet/ACD and Gallup Arts to increase visitors and to promote/incent business expansion downtown which will increase both property tax and GRT revenues long term. Lack of MainStreet Executive Director has impacted progress. Future Event Street will have positive impact on downtown revitalization.
 - D. Hold Harmless GRT fix is still in progress.
